Sir,

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT
LEGAL DEPARTMENT
File No. 3540
Dated 28/2/50

With reference to your circular No.15111, dated 27-12-49, I have to report as under:-

There was usually one Honorary Assistant to the Government Pleader in Dharwar District. The last Honorary Assistant was Mr.R.V.Kollali, since he accepted Govt. service as R.M.F.C. in 1947, no one has been appointed in his place. The work in this District both Civil and Criminal has increased enormously. Three Courts of Sessions and four appellate courts (civil) are now functioning at Dharwar instead of two as usual.

The merger of states and the consequent re-adjustment of talukas has added one new taluka and two Mahals to this district. Consequently numbers of matters referred to the P.P. and D.G.P. for opinion has increased considerably.

I consider it necessary that the D.G.P. and the P.P. should have two Honorary assistants and propose Messrs. M.S.Nesargi and V.V.Jamakhandi pleaders, Dharwar for being appointed as Honorary Assistants to the District Government Pleader and Public Prosecutor, Dharwar.

The District and Sessions Judge, Dharwar and the Public Prosecutor, Dharwar, have proposed their names and both these pleaders are willing to accept the appointments.

District Magistrate, Dharwar.

In view of the recommendations of the local officers perhaps Shri M.S. Nesargi and Shri V.V.Jamakhandi may be appointed Hon. Asstts to the D.G.P. and P.P. Dharwar for a period of three years with effect from the dates they take over charge.
